LOVE IS THE ONLY WAY TO FLY

©1985 Diana Lynne

For those who care to take a chance,
And brave the dangers of romance.
Even though the stakes are high,
Love Is The Only Way To Fly!

The ecstasy of love so rare,
Comes but once they say to those who dare.
And even though the stakes are high,
Love Is The Only Way To Fly!

Make up your mind! He who hesitates in love is lost.
Or you might find, (that) you don't get the chance to love at all.
Don't wait too long! Love may slip away while you procrastinate.
You must decide! Only you can be the master of your fate.

For those who care to take a chance,
And brave the dangers of romance.
And even though the stakes are high,
Love Is The Only Way To Fly, so high!

Make up your mind! He who hesitates in love is lost. (Don't hesitate, no you can't wait!)
Or you might find, (that) you don't get the chance to love at all.
Don't wait too long! Love may slip away while you procrastinate. (When destiny comes face to face!)
You must decide! Only you can be the master of your fate.

For those who care to take a chance,
And brave the dangers of romance.
And even though the stakes are high,
Love Is The Only Way To Fly!

You'll never know what love can be, (You'll never, know)
Unless you take the chance and see.
And even though the stakes are high,
Love Is The Only Way To Fly, so high, so high!
Love...

Come fly with me, so high, so high!
Take a chance. Take romance.
Come fly!
