MIRACLE

©2004 Diana Lynne and Zoey Lynne

Life is a mystery, (that) no one can explain...
It's beauty, it's joy and it's pain.
Show me the sun, the moon and the stars-
This is a Miracle to me.

Life is a riddle (that) there's no answer to...
(Who can) say what is real, what is true?
A mother's undying love, the first breath of life-
This is a Miracle to me.

Life is a puzzle that no one understands...
Where it begins, where it ends.
The splendor of oceans, (the) wind blowing through the trees...
Is truly a Miracle to me.

CHORUS (sung after each verse)

What is a Miracle?
And, how do we know when it's true for us?
What is a Miracle?
